Gabriella Scores a Hat Trick

Trinidad & Tobago's Olympic (Tokyo 2020) Judo athlete Gabriella Wood scored a hat trick on Saturday 15th March 2025 at the British University and College Sport Championships (BUCS), by winning gold in the female +78Kg category for the third time. This means that she continues to be best in her category among university students across the United Kingdom.

Representing the University of Stirling, she fought four (4) matches against the field of seven (7) competitors winning the championship against Abby Baker of the University of Southampton.

Also, as coach of the team from the University of Stirling, she celebrated two (2) bronze medals won by her charges.

The Friends of Judo Foundation wishes her continued success as she continues her 2025 competitive program.
