AIDAN GREAVES WINS SILVER AT THE 2023 NCJA COLLEGE & HIGH SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIPS

April 7, 2024 - The 2024 NCJA National College Judo Association College and High School Championship concluded with outstanding performances from talented athletes across the United States. Among the notable competitors was Aidan Greaves, a junior at Fulshear High School in Texas, who clinched the silver medal in the men's under 81 kg category, showcasing exemplary skill and dedication.

Representing both his school and the proud nation of Trinidad and Tobago, Aidan Greaves demonstrated remarkable prowess and sportsmanship throughout the championship. His achievement not only highlights his personal dedication and commitment to the sport of Judo but also brings honor to his school and country.

The event, held at Texas A&M College Station, Texas, served as a platform for aspiring athletes to showcase their talents and compete at the highest level of collegiate and high school Judo. The spirited atmosphere and competitive matchups captivated spectators and underscored the growing prominence of Judo in the collegiate and high school sports landscape.

As the championship drew to a close, Aidan Greaves stood tall among his peers, embodying the values of perseverance, excellence, and sportsmanship. His accomplishment serves as an inspiration to aspiring athletes and reinforces the importance of dedication and hard work in achieving success on the mat and beyond.
